I sing to the light that I see - out the
I sing for the pa - tience to learn - how to I sing for the friend - ship that seems - to have I sing to the cur - tain sur - roun - ing my I sing to the void that em - bra - ced me with door. And it's dark, dark - in - side - - - . I spin. I died. I fear. I'm love. The sing for the chal - lenge this path - has in store. And it's dark, sing to re - mem - ber that still, small voice with - in.

sing for for - give - ness, God knows how hard I tried.
brea - thing the grief I've been hol - ding for years.
one who en - folds me be - low - and a - bove.

dark - in - side - - - . The dark - ness takes cou - rage, the dark - ness takes time. li-ving in the dark-ness brings a dif-f'rent state of mind. The dark - ness knows hea - ling, the dark - ness knows change.
